October Meeting: Russian Nesting Dolls Public Invited

Where:	Parish House Canterbury United Community Church Hackleboro Rd., Canterbury NH 03224
When:	Saturday, October 13 11:00 Social Hour & Lunch 12:00 Business Meeting 1:00 Program
Please bring:	Your nametag; a Mystery Gift if you owe one; your lunch including drink and dessert; your monthly finds and show & tell items; a friend; a snack to share.

Program: At the October meeting, Marina Forbes will present a program on Matryoshka, better known as Russian Nesting Dolls. This program is provided through the New Hampshire Humanities Council, and will be open to the public. Bring a friend! We'll have coffee and a few light snacks, if you'd like to bring something to share, please do. There will also be a short discussion of the recent Baltimore Regional, from some of our members who attended. Instead of "dress a doll" at each meeting, this year we'll set aside time for show and tell, monthly finds and questions.

Ways & Means: The ladies at the sales table respectfully request that we bring cash for our purchases at club meetings. They want to be able to pay consignors the same day, so it makes it tricky when we pay by check.

Sunshine: Linda Svok is the new Sunshine coordinator. Please let her know when a member is in need of cheering up from illness or loss. Phone is the best way to reach her.

Membership: At the September meeting, Denise Thayer showed her dolls. Her paperwork is all in order and we will be voting on her application at the October meeting. Margaret Kincaid and Debbie Federlein were voted into the club in September.

Last Chance: Withington Auction will hold their final auction of the season (and maybe forever!) at the Holiday Inn in Nashua on October 18 and 19. Wendy Collins will be putting on the final doll show of the year in our area, on November 4 at the Lafayette Crossing Plaza in North Hampton. This one will be in a different location than previously, at a former Staples store with plenty of room.
